FOREWORD

We, the Senior Class of 1941, take great pleasure in presenting this edition of the "Tattler" to you, our successors.

We have endeavored to portray accurately and colorfully the activities of each member of the high school, and we hope you will approve our efforts.

We are proud of our association with the faculty and with you, our fellow students, and honored to take our place in the ranks of the alumni of Niles High School. May she ever stand for the spirit of education and sportsmanship she gave to us!

DEDICATION

We, the Class of 1941, are dedicating this edition of the Tattler to Wayne Smith.

During his seven years as a teacher here in Niles, his friendly spirit has made a lasting impression on those who have known him. Mr. Smith, who attended Central High School, in Kalamazoo, Michigan, is a graduate of Western State Teachers College, in that same city. This June he will receive his Master's Degree from the University of Michigan.

In addition to teaching he has been assistant football and track coach for several years and this year he has been made head track coach. To the athletic world he is best known as "Smitty," and so it is to "Smitty" we dedicate this Tattler of 1941.

ADMINISTRATION

BOARD OF EDUCATION

President

MRS. F. W. RICHTER has served as a board member for twenty-seven years. She was elected to the presidency upon the resignation of Mr. P. A. Hadsell.

Vice-President

MR. FRANK G. FRENCH, owner of the French Paper Mill, has been a board member for ten years. He succeeded Mr. M. S. Rudisill, who resigned in May, 1931.

Secretary

MR. J. WALTER WOOD, President of the Niles Steel Tank Company, has been a board member for twenty-four years.

Treasurer

MR. PAUL BLACKMOND, local jeweler, has been a board member for four years.

Trustee

MR. LEWIS J. KRELL was appointed this year to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Mr. P. A. Hadsell.

These are parlous times. The nation and our schools have undergone much. Individual students have had their problems increased by the unrest of the times. It has been a source of satisfaction that I have been able to give to many pupils suggestions, sympathy and a willingness to hear another's troubles which have been of value to them in meeting the problems which are of vital interest to them as students.

Floyd W. Crawford

As principal of Niles Junior-Senior High School of fourteen hundred pupils and forty-five teachers, I find my time occupied with a great variety of duties, many of which must be performed consistently to keep the entire system operating efficiently. It has always been my hope that these responsibilities will never make it impossible for me to give personal attention to the many pupils, teachers, and parents who daily come to my office. I derive genuine pleasure and satisfaction from the assistance I can offer to those who come, because as a principal I am interested in the present and future of every member of Niles Junior-Senior High School.

At the time these pictures were mounted, Edwin Radewald and Charlotte Walker were virtually tied for second honors. As we go to press, Phyllis Crawford seems likely to share in the tie. Thelma Cameron remains in first place. Final standings will, of course, be determined by this semester's grades. We regret that this information came too late to permit us to include Miss Crawford's picture on this page.

The faculty are my teachers
 I shall not want others
 They maketh me to fatigue my poor brain
 They leadeth me to their desks
 They demandeth my gum
 They canneth me
 From classes for my lesson's sake
 Yea, though I walk through the halls in silence, I fear them
 For they watcheth me
 Their ideas and assignments terrifieth me
 I am prepared for bawling outs
 In the presence of my classmates
 I annointeth my books with study
 My marks runneth down
 Surely if they teacheth me all the days of my life
 I shall dwell in the Home of the feeble-minded forever.

Armistice Day 1940

Senior High Library offers facilities for recreational and reference reading. Many students avail themselves of the opportunity to read the up-to-the-minute magazines which are provided.

Mr. Roth conducts a band rehearsal. It takes many hours of these to prepare the concerts you enjoy.

Earl Martin operates an inclined plane, and Kathleen Griffith takes notes. Don Smith watches as Mr. Lehman adjusts a system of pulleys, and Mary Ann Grathwohl investigates the mechanical advantage of a wheel and axle.

Mrs. Joseph shows Adelaide Thompson the fine points of using a dictaphone while Anna Mae Hancock practices on the Sundstrand calculating machine. Betty Jane Johnson is filing letters as Marcia Ridley runs off copies of test questions on the duplicator.

Junior High School boys learn by doing in the N. H. S. wood shop.

Section rehearsals, introduced this year by Mr. Roth, have added polish to the band and orchestra performances. In this picture Jerry Smith beats the big drum, while Jack Cogswell, Dean Gano, and Jack Powrie roll the snares, and Charles Brown crashes the cymbals.

"Watch those calories, kiddies!"

"3:30 Bell!"

Artists practice with the light coming over their left shoulders. Pretty tough on a south-paw, isn't it, Arvid?

Junior High students browse amid pleasant surroundings. Donna Curtis and Joan Walker issue a book to Marjorie Young while Marian Walker scans a fly-leaf and tries to decide whether the book is worth reading. Can you identify the other two?

Grade school children patronize the cafeteria before the high school is dismissed at noon. About two hundred people eat in the cafeteria daily, and on rainy days the line sometimes extends clear to the Broadway entrance.

Twelve o'clock rush in the Junior High halls. The fire horns can empty the building in a minute and a half, but the dinner bell beats that record every day!

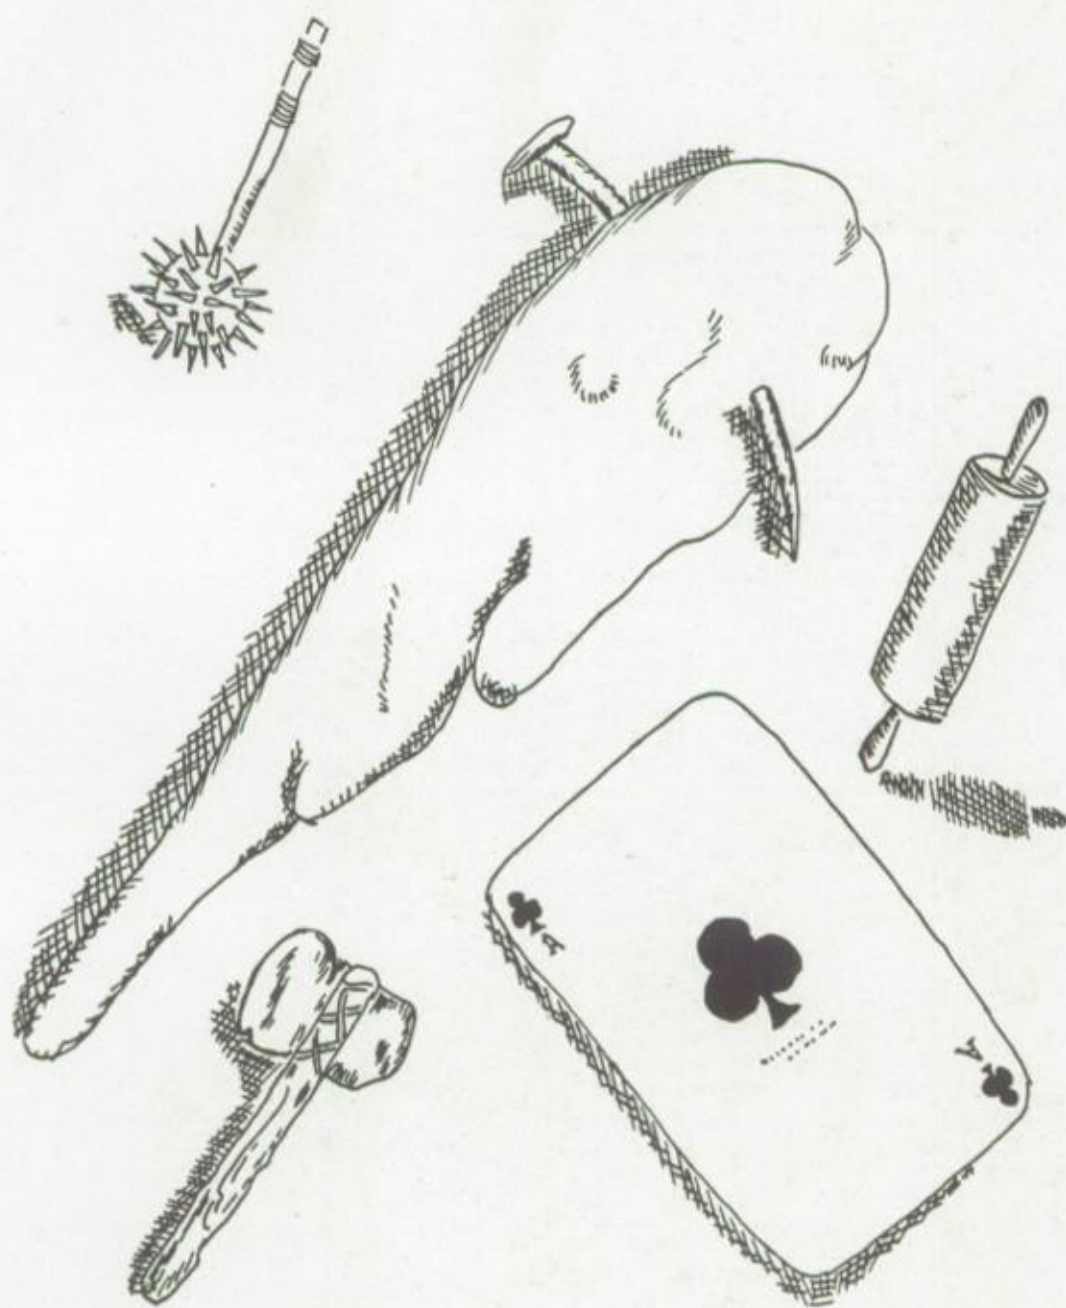

Our favorite band marches in the 1940 Blossom Parade. Can you find anyone out of step? We can't.

"Take a letter, Pat."

He makes it hot for us. Stoking the big furnaces that heat the Central school plant.

Mr. Balas fills a balloon with gas for his general science class. No wise cracks, please—and put that pin away!

The annual Roman banquet of the "Latin Sodalitas." Those hooded girls in the prayerful attitude in the front row are "Vestal Virgins."

FOOTBALL SEASON

Coach George "Sparky" Miller's second season as Niles high grid mentor proved to be the most successful enjoyed by Viking footballers in recent years as they won three tiffs, lost one, and tied another to place second in the Big Seven conference race. The Vikings were unable to play the first three games on their schedule, and missed out on early season practice due to an infantile paralysis epidemic.

They snapped a 17-game "no-victory" string that dated back to 1937 when they downed their neighboring rival, Buchanan, 12 to 7 in the season's curtain raiser. A fourth-period touchdown enabled them to overcome Buchanan's 7 to 6 lead.

Niles met its lone defeat of the season at the hands of St. Joseph, 13 to 7, when the Vikings allowed their own confidence to overtake them. St. Joseph built up a sizeable first-half lead that proved to be the stumbling block to Niles.

Dowagiac became Niles' second victim when Miller's eleven upset the Chieftains 6 to 0 with a first-quarter touchdown.

Benton Harbor St. John's provided the opposition for Niles' lone non-conference engagement, and bowed 12 to 6 after the Vikings had spotted the Saints a six-point advantage.

On a muddy, wind-swept field, the Vikings brought the season to a close in the annual Armistice Day tussle with Three Rivers, which bore even more importance this time because the Big Seven title hinged upon the outcome. Hampered by poor playing conditions, the teams fought to a scoreless deadlock, thus giving the crown to Three Rivers.

Harlan Wingcart, senior tackle, proved to be a great worry to opposing backs as well as an aid to his own ball-carrying mates. His teammates chose him as the Most Valuable Player on the squad. In addition, he was placed on the All-Conference team, and on the All-Southwestern Michigan Class B second team.

Captain Charley Peterson was not spectacular, but instead was the ever-dependable fast-thinking quarterback who sparked the Vikings through a successful campaign.

Fullback Raymond Smith, who carried the burden of most of Niles' offensive thrusts with his hard-driving tactics, was awarded a first-string berth on the All-Conference team.

Captain-elect Bob Jurgensen was selected as the No. 1 center on the All-Southwestern Michigan Class B eleven.

A pair of redheads, guard Dick Shipperley and Jerry Wingcart, an end, captured positions on the All-Conference second team.

Other letter winners were:

Donald Blank, guard; Donald Funk, halfback; Edward Hazinski, tackle; Robert Kalling, guard; Charles Krueger, halfback; Clayton Long, halfback; Robert Morris, tackle; Jack Rayburn, end; Ted Spenner, halfback; and David Thornton, fullback.

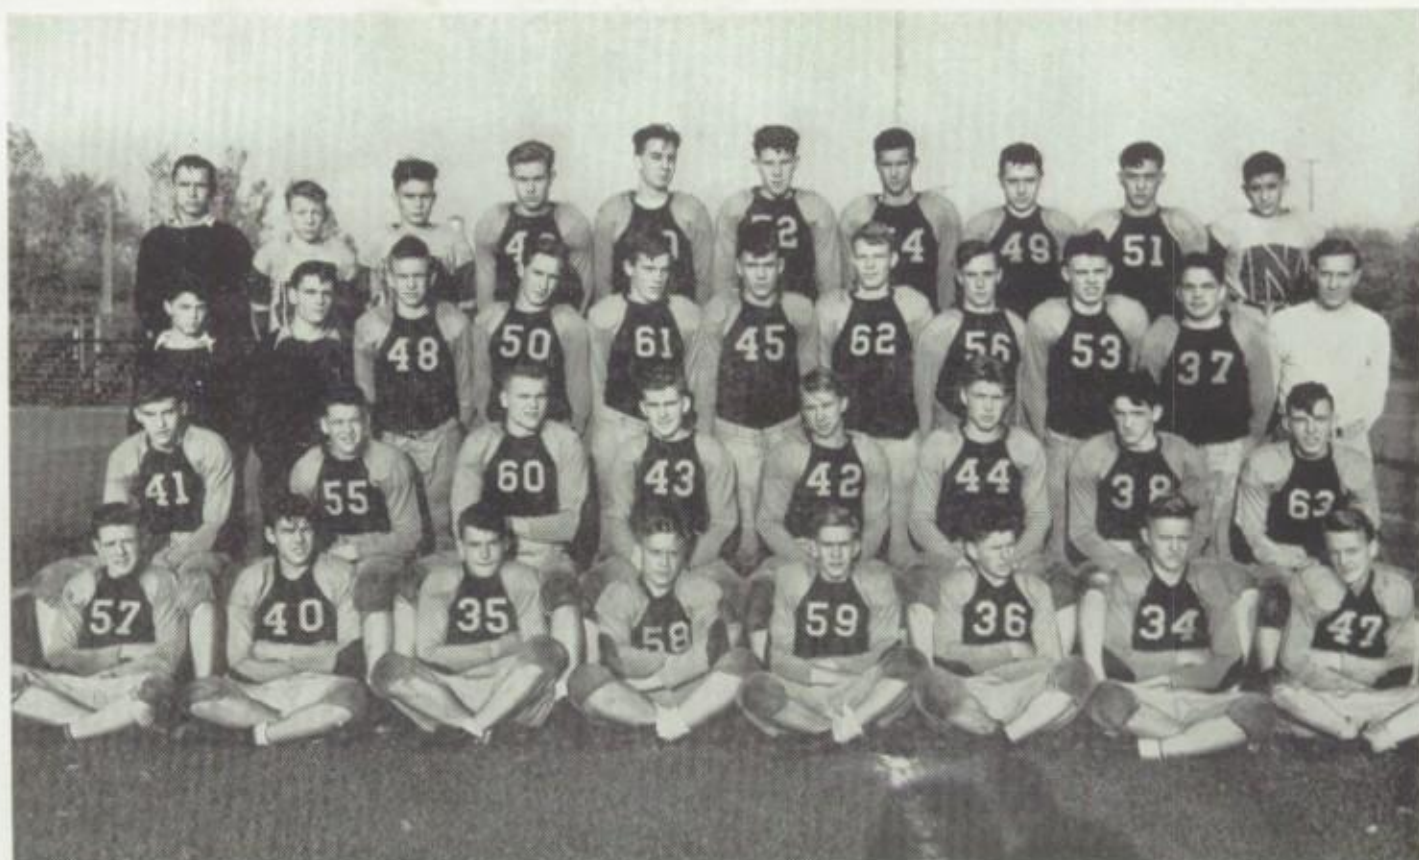

Of these players, only Jurgensen, Krueger, and Rayburn will return for the 1941 season.

1940 FOOTBALL BANQUET

On Dec. 17 at the Four Flags Hotel, members of the football and cross country teams met to put the finishing touch on a successful fall athletic season with a banquet sponsored by the Exchange Club. Harry Stuldreher, former All-American quarterback of the famed Four Horsemen of Notre Dame and present head football coach and athletic director at the University of Wisconsin, was the principal speaker. The election of Bob Jurgensen as 1941 captain and Harlan Wingcart as most valuable player was announced.

SECOND TEAM FOOTBALL

Coach Wayne Smith's reserves went through this season unbeaten, winning two and tying a pair. They met St. Joseph, Dowagiac, South Haven, and Three Rivers. Due to the loss of so many players from this year's varsity, many of the second stringers will step into varsity positions next fall. A few players even made the jump during the season.

FRESHMAN FOOTBALL

Freshman gridgers were once again under the tutelage of Harold "Curly" Bradfield. Freshman football is important for it is on this team that the regulars of years to come get their start. Although they do not meet teams from other schools, they do play the sophomore squad and turned in promising performances in their games this fall.

1940-41 BASKETBALL SEASON

Although the records may not show it, Coach Chet Davidson's last team proved to be one of the strongest in southwestern Michigan. They finished in the Big Seven cellar and were finally awarded but two wins in 16 starts because of an eligibility check-up that forced the forfeiture of six victories. The Niles lads recovered to hand Allegan a sound tournament trouncing before bowing to the Class B runner-up, Sturgis. After piloting Viking quintets for 13 years, Coach Davidson resigned.

Next year's mentor, whoever he may be, will inherit a wealth of material in the form of nine lettermen. Only seniors to conclude their high school careers were Don Funk, whose eligibility expired at the mid-semester, and Richard Merrell. Returning monogram winners are Captain Andrew McCormick, this year's high scorer, Kermit Adams, Dillard Crocker, Henry Miswick, Richard Moneysmith, Walter Naas, Richard Prenkert, Don Tennyson, and Robert Zabel. As a reward for his hard work in carrying out the managerial duties, Jim Luth received a letter.

1940 TRACK SEASON

In his first year as track coach, Wayne Smith developed a Big Seven conference champion. The team won just one of the first six meets before taking the conference title for the third consecutive time in the first night meet held in this section of the state. The meet took place here at Plym Park. Niles had but two firsts—Camp in the 100 yard dash and Snyder in the mile run—gaining their points by placing second, third, fourth, and fifth. At Kalamazoo they dropped to third in the regional. Tennyson, Koontz, and Snyder qualified for the state meet at Ypsilanti, but only Snyder was able to place there. His third place in the mile gave Niles its four lone points. A special relay team placed second to Saginaw in the Michigan AAU meet. They had planned to enter the Mt. Pleasant relays, but bad weather kept them at home.

Joe Kennedy, who ran the 440 yard dash and a leg on the relay, was elected captain at the close of the season. Besides Kennedy, other senior letter winners are Richard Camp, Earl Koontz, Robert Mansfield, Harry Parker, Clarence Snyder, and Tom Stoye. Returning lettermen are Earl Bachman, Louis Bonner, Gemroe Fletcher, David Kaser, Clayton Long, Donald Malone, and Robert Tennyson.

Coach Robert Marks' golfers slipped beyond the .500 mark with four triumphs in seven dual meets. After capturing fourth in the regional at Battle Creek, they tied for eighth in the state tourney on the Kalamazoo links. They finished third in the conference playoffs here at Plym Park. Art Morris' 83 against Dowagiac represented the best individual performance, while John Frucci possessed the best seasonal average. The lettermen, listed in the order of their average for the year, were John Frucci, Arthur Morris, Donald Funk, Thomas Buheker, and Jack Purdy.

was eliminated in the first round.

The 1940 tennis team, under the direction of Newton Bacon, broke even in dual competition with three victories against three defeats. They placed third in the Dowagiac regional, and on the home courts they took fifth in the Big Seven conference meet. It was Mr. Bacon's final season as coach, as he resigned his post. Charles Peterson, who in the role of No. 1 man was forced to meet the best racket-wielders, lost out to Merle Gulick of Dowagiac for the regional singles title and then moved on to the state tournament at Ann Arbor where he bowed in the opening round to Milbert Anderson of St. Clair. Anderson, Class C-D champion for two years, lost to Gulick for the state crown. Senior lettermen were Franklin Toney, Richard Harper, Harold Koontz, and Charles Naas. Returning letter winners are Charles Peterson, Joseph Graham, Ernest Marazita, Wallace Bartholomew, and Bob Warburton who won all of his six dual matches. Mr. Blethen will coach the team in 1941, relinquishing his girls' squad to Miss Carr.

1940 GIRLS' TENNIS SEASON

The girls' tennis team finished with the same record in dual matches as the boys' team, winning three and losing three. Mr. Blethen handled the coaching duties for the first time, replacing Miss Pierce. The girls' found tennis as played by State High and Dowagiac much to their liking, but the going was too tough against St. Joseph and South Haven. Senior letter winners were Bretice Fay, Gwendolyn Owen, and Helen Welsh. Manager Betty Hossfeld was also a senior. Others who earned an "N" were Joan Taylor, Phyllis Crawford, Jean Christian, Estelle Forgash, and Marcia Herrick.

In cross country, where the low score wins, Niles has consistently produced winners and this year was no exception. After a victoryless dual season, cut short by the cancellation of two meets, Mr. Whitwam's harriers captured the regional crown for the tenth consecutive year. They suffered three defeats before claiming their lone victory of the season at the Kalamazoo regional. A week later they journeyed to Ypsilanti where they placed second behind Charlotte. Letter winners were Dick Petro and Keith Beall, who also received medals for their regional performances, Joseph Frucci, David Kaser, Henry Miswick, John Mack, Jack Zeider, and manager Edward French. Only Kaser and Frucci are seniors.

With a squad of eight members—three Seniors, four Juniors, and one Sophomore—Niles participated in thirty-two debates of which twenty-eight were decision contests. Niles won sixteen and lost twelve, using three-man teams in Michigan and two-man teams in Indiana.

The subject for debate was "Resolved: That the Power of the Federal Government Should Be Increased" ("Decreased" appeared in the Indiana statement of the question.)

In five years Niles has won seventy-five and lost forty out of 115 decision debates.

The winner of the Exchange Club Forensic Cup this year is Victor Gutschenritter. This cup is each year presented to a Senior who has done the most consistent debating over the 4-year period. Past winners were Howard Clark, 1939, and Louise Platt, 1940.

TWENTY-SECOND ANNUAL GYM SHOW

On April 4 the Department of Physical Education presented the Twenty-second Annual Gym Show.

Heavy calisthenics were demonstrated by the Senior Boys under the supervision of Charles Peterson. Pirates invaded the gymnasium in the form of the Junior Girls' Pyramids, which were bigger and better than before, in that they had four groups, each of which presented pyramids different from the other groups.

The Junior boys presented "Daffynitions" of football and basketball terms. Leland Hamilton, in a nightshirt and carrying his candle and pillow, demonstrated a "sleeper play." Bud Babcock, in his going away clothes and traveling bags, was discovered "traveling with the ball."

To the tempo of a lively march, the Senior Girls, dressed as drum majorettes, marched in and went through a baton twirling routine which delighted the audience.

The traditional "Tumbling 16's" were presented by the ninth grade boys. Then the gymnasium was plunged into darkness and Jean and Pat Peters, drum majorettes, stepped in with batons lighted in blue and gold and gave a very intricate routine.

Of course, the outstanding event of the gym show, as always, was the Junior-Senior Competition, in which the Seniors, coming up from behind, scored a victory of 20 to 16 over the Juniors.

AND OUNCE

The Instrumental Music Department presented the 17th Annual Band Bounce on March twenty-first. Opening the program was the Grade School Band, which presented three numbers. A special attraction was a trombone solo with variations, played by Jack Welsher.

Next the Junior High School Band played a short program. A saxophone quartet, consisting of Jim Warner, Donald Worrell, Don Smith, and Leon Smith, played two selections.

The Senior High School Band followed the quartet. Among the specialty numbers accompanied by the band were a sousaphone solo, played by Ted Warner; a trumpet trio, consisting of Dave Merrell, Bill Dick, and Ralph Hatfield; a piano solo by Robert Steinbauer; and a march featuring the baton twirlers.

Band letters were awarded to the following people, who have earned 1500 or more merit points: Jack Cogswell, John Cuddeback, Dick Merrell, Jim Rosencrans, Don Smith, Charlotte Walker, Jim Warner, Ted Warner, Wyatt Martin, and Don Worrell.

The highlight of the evening was the presentation of the Melody Queen for 1941, Phyllis Crawford, and her court, by Mr. Moore, and the gifts from the band to them.

A stirring climax to bring the evening to a close was the rendering of "Uncle Sam in Review," a pageant of the seven eras in American history, (1) The American Indian, (2) The Pilgrims, (3) The Spirit of '76, (4) The Declaration of Independence, (5) The North and South United, (6) Flanders Field, (7) America Today.

VARIETY SHOW

The Vocal Music Department presented the Variety Show on May 16 and 17, 1940.

The theme was based upon the story of a group of girls unable to find a show to put on. Herman, a book salesman, sold them a book, from which the Variety Show was developed. The Junior High School Choir, combined with the Dancing Club, presented several numbers.

George Feldon, as Harrigan, the Irishman, was one of the comic elements of the show. A Sultan Act, featuring Clayton Grinage and his stooge, Al Drollet, provided hearty laughs.

One of the lighter numbers was a Victor Herbert presentation with singing and dancing choruses. Gertrude Davis turned coquette and flirted with Merrill Walker and George Feldon. A fashion review was presented which was very enlightening to the audience. The gowns were modeled by members of the boys glee club.

The climax of the evening was the Senior High School Choir's presentation of excerpts from Carmen. The backdrop, a Spanish street scene, made an excellent background for the Spanish music. The soloists were Lenore Gulbransen, Martha Crossman, and Carleton Pletcher.

Senior Play

"WINGS OF THE MORNING"

On May 1-2, 1941, the Senior Class presented "Wings of the Morning," by Charles Quimby Burdette. The play was directed by Mr. Balas who, incidentally, deserves credit for the very excellent scenery. Assisting directors were Yvonne Adams and Beverly Cooke.

The play is of a scientist who attempts to bring together three classes of people from different walks of life to show them the hypocrisy of their lives. Among these groups of people are a famous doctor, a dress designer, and a poet; an Italian fruit seller and his daughter; and the inmate of an old ladies' home, and her young companion.

Through his inventive genius he has perfected a means of lowering his entire house into an elevator shaft. While they are at the bottom of the shaft, he suffers a mental relapse; and they are unable to get back up. During the time the group is thus trapped, they have time to think over their futile lives and to make plans to rectify their errors. The cast was as follows:

Joyce Calvert (a successful young dress designer)	Jean Christian
Loa (Joyce's maid and companion)	Clara Bender
Master Geoffrey (a strange host)	Tom Vetter
Eben Forthright (emissary of Master Geoffrey's)	Jack Cogswell
Ellen (Master Geoffrey's twin sister)	Thelma Cameron
David Banning (a surgeon)	Jim Warner
Adrian Powell (a poet)	Merrill Walker

Tonio Di Silvestri (a fruit seller)	David Kaser
Carlotta (Tonio's wife)	Dorothy Haslanger
Benedetta (Tonio's daughter)	Estelle Forgash
Miss Wanley (matron of an old ladies' home)	Marian Young
Mrs. Ellis (an inmate of the Home)	Maxine Reum
Trudy (Mrs. Ellis's companion)	Mary Ann Grathwohl
Stanley Gordon (an aviator)	David Thornton
Effie (a student nurse)	Lonnie Jean Boller

The Junior Play

"RUNNING WILD"

On November 14-15, 1940, "Running Wild," a farce by Glenn Hughes, was presented by the Junior Class and directed by Mr. Balas. Prompters were Margaret Barron and Lucille Rogers.

The story is of a young amateur script-writer who, learning that a Hollywood film executive is to stay at his uncle's hotel, plans to dramatize a mystery play he has written thus hoping to land a job as a scenario writer in Hollywood. He uses the occupants of the hotel, including two would-be movie actresses, as his characters, and by a mistaken identity, the real producer becomes involved in the play. When his identity is finally made known, he offers the young script-writer a job, and the two girls screen-tests.

The comedy love-interest is supplied by the botanist and a spinster wild-flower enthusiast.

Between-act music was provided by the Girls' Sextet.

The cast was as follows:

Carl Hammond (owner and manager of Desert Inn)	David Merrell
Don Thomas (his nephew, a young writer)	George Hoffman
Ed Smith (Don's pal)	Andrew McCormick
Marian Gray (Don's fiancée)	Martha Zechlin
Daphne ("Daffy") Hatch (Ed's girl friend)	Joan Bachman
Max Goodwin (a Hollywood film executive)	Wyatt Martin
Sherry Lee (a would-be movie actress)	Corrine Nielson
Louise Latour (a would-be movie actress)	Margaret Bates
Jane Finch (a spinster interested in wild flowers)	Marjorie McQuaid
Professor Cosmo Cheever (a famous botanist)	David Flotow
Victor Dunn (a salesman who wants to be G-man)	Don Tennyson
Joe Mason (the sheriff)	Don Worrell
Selma Bell (the colored cook)	Pauline Williams
Manuel (a Mexican houseboy)	John Beehler

Mr. Frigaard Welcomes Noble Cain
to Our Vocal Festival

BERRIEN-CASS COUNTY VOCAL FESTIVAL

This year's Berrien-Cass County Vocal Festival was presented on March 12 to an overflow audience of townspeople and out-of-town people.

The arrangements for the festival were in charge of Mr. Frigaard, and the guest director was Noble Cain of Chicago. Mr. Cain is a well-known director and composer of choral music in America. He has done much work in vocal music in Chicago high schools. At present he occupies his time directing vocal clinics and festivals all over the country.

The chorus, consisting of about 400 vocalists from 15 different schools, rehearsed from 10:00 until noon and from 1:30 until 5:30 in the afternoon. A banquet was held at the Presbyterian Church for the singers and an interesting program was presented. The concert was given at 8:00 in the big gymnasium. Several of the numbers sung were arrangements by Mr. Cain, and there were two, "Can't Stay Away," and "America My Own," which he wrote himself. The concert was very well presented and Mr. Cain said that he had enjoyed the opportunity to work with these boys and girls, and that it was one of the best groups he had worked with in many years.

BAND CLINIC

The Band Clinic was held for the second year here in Niles. Mr. William D. Revelli, conductor, has been director of the University of Michigan band for several years. Mr. Revelli, who was director at Hobart, Indiana, for ten years, had the first place band in national contests for the last seven years of his stay there.

The Clinic was composed of the best players from the bands at Battle Creek, Berrien Springs, Buchanan, Cassopolis, Coldwater, Dowagiac, Elkhart, Hastings, New Buffalo, Niles, Paw Paw, South Bend Central, South Bend Riley, St. Joseph, Sturgis, Three Oaks, and Three Rivers.

This year's Clinic was held over the week-end of February eighth and ninth. Practice was held all day Saturday and Sunday morning, with the concert on Sunday afternoon. After rehearsal on Saturday, the Niles High School Band sponsored a dance for the members of the Clinic Band. The arrangements for the dance were in charge of Miss Grandy. Featured in the Floor Show were Jean Peters, Nedra Smith, Paul Binns, and Tom Hatfield.

People from out of town who stayed over Saturday night were entertained in the homes of Niles people. The Instrumental Music League was in charge of placing the guests in the homes.

ORCHESTRA FESTIVAL

The Berrien County Association of School Superintendents sponsored the Berrien County Orchestra Festival at St. Joseph on April sixteenth. The guest conductor was Mr. David Hughes, director of instrumental music at Elkhart, Indiana.

The orchestra featured three groups—the concert or picked orchestra, the string section, and the massed orchestra. The soloist was Mr. Nick De Rosa, clarinetist, from Chicago.

STUDENT COUNCIL

In the second year of its existence the Senior High School Student Council continued to focus its attention on student welfare in Niles High. The Council has its own sphere of jurisdiction over all student affairs which are not of an administrative nature. This year, besides handling routine items originating from the various advisories, the Student Council instituted a system for the election of cheerleaders, sponsored student-supervised study halls, worked toward an all-school trip to Chicago, held dances after home basketball games, voted to add new loyalty songs to the present one, sent an exchange program to Dowagiac, procured through Mr. Crawford new dictionaries for study halls, and helped Mr. Roth in selection of Melody Queen. The Council made a study of many other items of business pertaining to school life and offered suggestions in accord with the welfare of the student body.

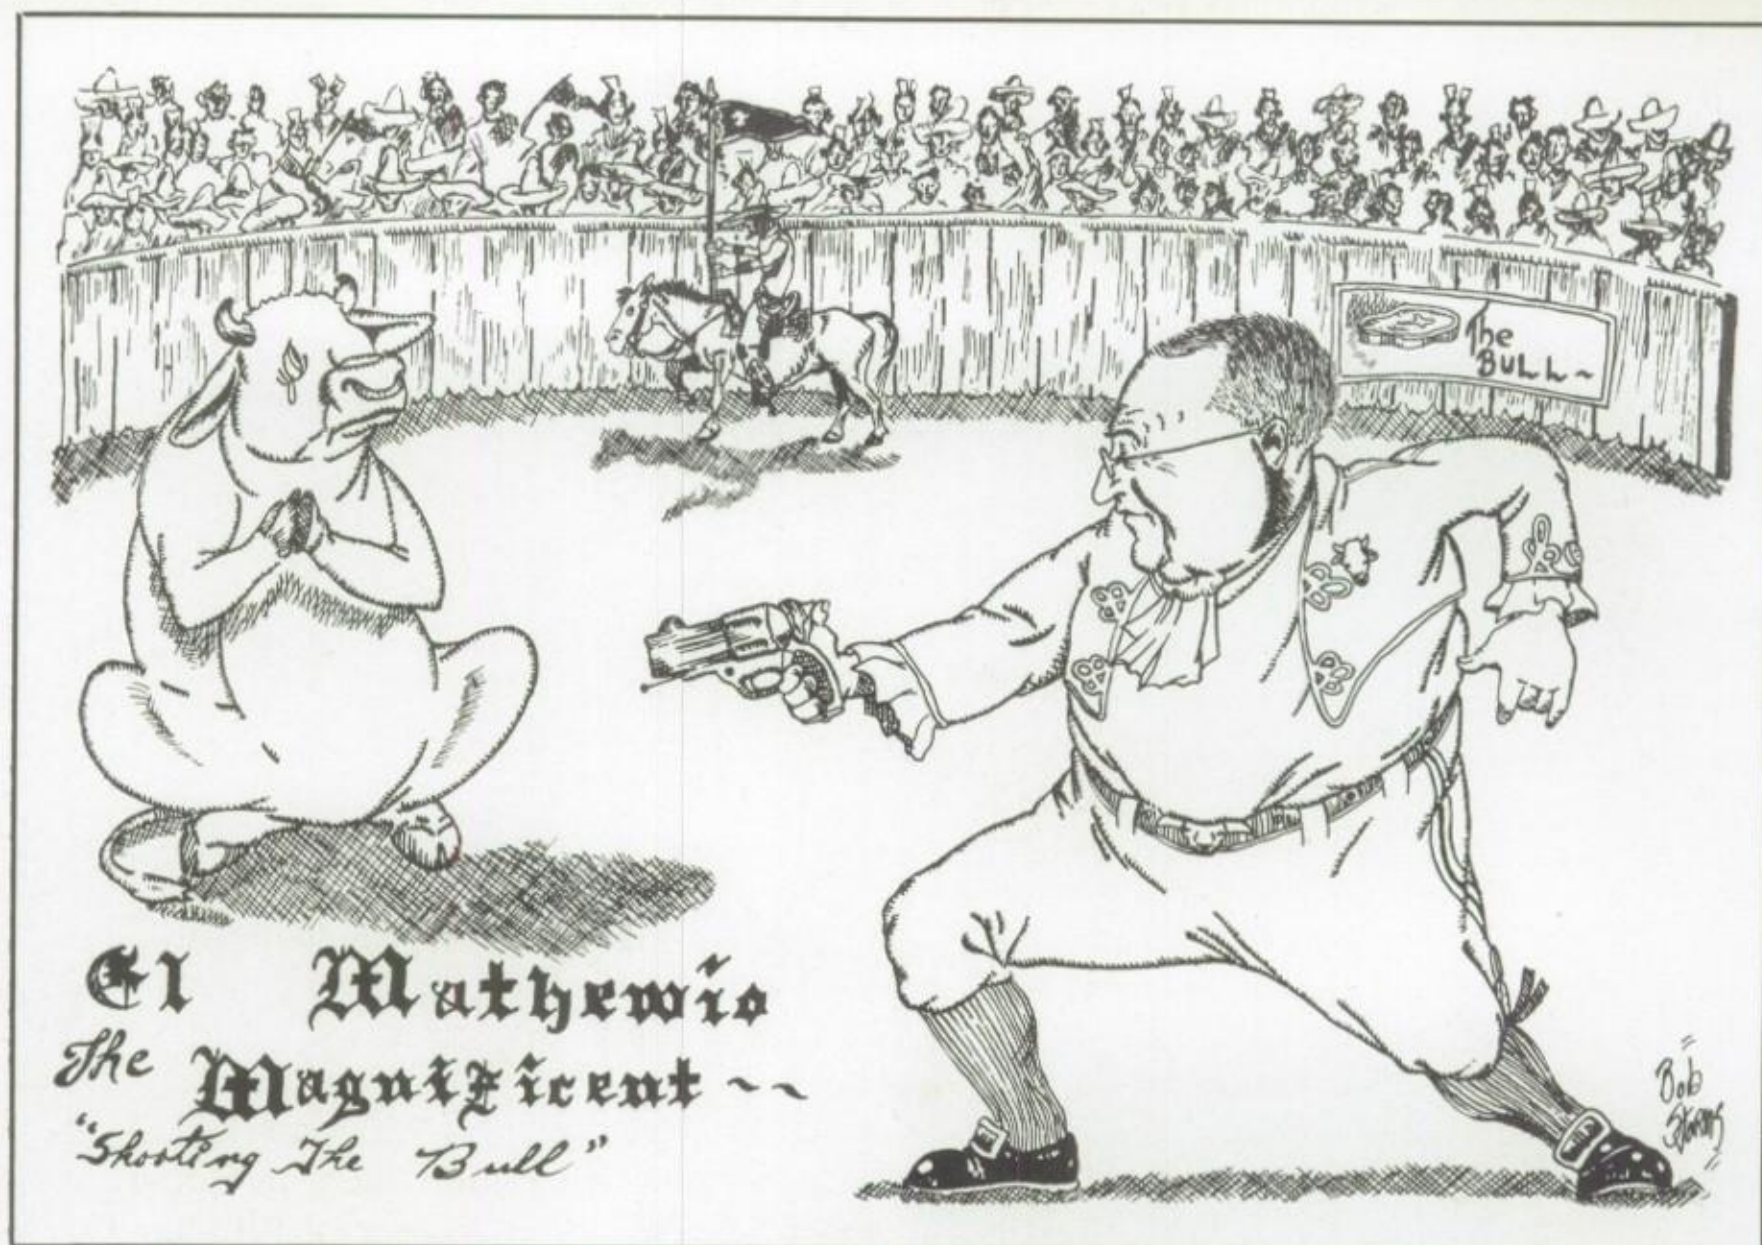

The last formal activity of the Student Council and the climax of its social activity was the all-school spring dance held at the Four Flags Hotel on May 23.

ART REVIEW

On April 18, 1940, the Art Department of Senior High sponsored the Art Review, which was arranged by Miss Clevering. Assisting her were Miss Hoevet and Miss Culver. The purpose of this review is to acquaint the students with the old works of art and masters.

The most outstanding pictures presented were Gainsborough's The Blue Boy, which was portrayed by Mary Ann Hance; Lawrence's The Red Boy, portrayed by Nancy Tony; and Hitchcock's The Flower Girl in Holland, portrayed by Margaret Forbes. On a more elaborate scale were those acts which took the entire stage. Among those were Boughton's Pilgrims Going to Church, Sargent's Frieze of the Prophets, Abbey's Galahad the Deliverer, and Taft's Great Lakes.

Art classes from the seventh grade through the twelfth grade worked hard for several months on the costumes and scenery to make the Art Review a success.

GOLF DEFINED

Golf is what letter-carrying, ditch-digging, and carpet beating would be if those three tasks had to be performed on the same afternoon. The game is played on carefully selected grass with little white balls and as many clubs as the player can afford. A "hole" is a tin cup in the center of a "green." A "green" is a small parcel of grass costing about $1.98 a blade, and located between a brook and a couple of apple trees, on a lot of "unfinished excavation." The idea is to get the golf ball into each of the eighteen cups in the fewest strokes and the greatest number of words. After the eighteenth hole, the golfer adds up his score, stops when he reaches 87, takes a shower, sings "Sweet Adeline" with six or eight other liars, and calls it the end of a perfect day.

GUS LORK - - PROPRIETOR

Ending a sentence with a preposition is considered inelegant, though admittedly correct English usage. But can you imagine a perfectly grammatical sentence ending with five prepositions? Little Tommy, ill upstairs, complained to his mother as she sat down to read to him: "What did you bring that book I didn't want to be read to out of up for?"

"Thanks very much for the birthday cake. But what's the idea of the electric bulb on it?"
"It's 40 candle power, dear."

Mr. Blethen walked into a store and said to the sales-girl: "One dozen of your very best diapers." The lady, handing him the package, said: "That will be one dollar, and three cents for tax."

"Tax? We use safety pins at our house," Mr. Blethen replied scornfully.

YOU CAN'T WIN

If a man runs after money, he's money-mad; if he keeps it he's a capitalist; if he spends it, he's a playboy; if he doesn't get it, he's a ne'er-do-well; if he doesn't try to get it, he lacks ambition. If he gets it without working for it, he's a parasite; and if he accumulates it after a life time of hard work, people call him a fool who never got anything out of life.

SECOND FIDDLE

At a particularly loud clap of thunder, a lady walking along a London street became startled.

"It's all right, lidy," said an urchin. "It ain't 'tler, it's only Gawd."

Mr. Kovac: "Very few women have any knowledge of parliamentary law.

Mr. Bradfield: "You don't know my wife. She's been speaker of the house for 15 years.

Johnnie: "Mr. Moore, what's a traitor?"

Mr. Moore: "A traitor, my boy, is a man who leaves our party and goes over to the other side."

Johnnie: "Then what's a man who leaves his party and comes over to your side?"

Mr. Moore: "A convert, my boy!"

"Because you love nice things"

Rosemary, one of the many little girls recently sent out of London, was going to bed on her first evening in the country.

"Do you say your prayers before going to bed, darling?" her hostess asked. Rosemary said she did.

"Well, then, kneel down and I'll listen as your mother does."

Rosemary repeated the usual "Now I lay me down to sleep," and then improvised a postscript of her own. "And God, please protect Daddy and Mummy from those German bombs. And, do, dear God, take good care of yourself, because if anything happens to you, we're sunk."

Two men the other evening, driving home from a swell party, car zigzagging all over the road:

Jim: "Careful, Mac! Y'liable to run us into a ditch."

Mac: "Who, me? I thought you was driving!"

Miss Peirce was riding in the park one morning when her foot became loosened from the stirrup. She fidgeted around trying to get her foot back and the horse in the fray got his foot caught in the stirrup.

"Well," Miss Peirce said, "If you're getting on, I'm getting off."

"I just want him to learn the rudiments of walking," said the doting mother as the maid piloted the baby across the room. "He'll always have plenty of cars."

"My fiancée wants us to take a honeymoon trip around the world," said Marian Young, "but I'd rather go somewhere else."

"Well, then can I come out after the war?" asked the tearful would-be debutante of her stern mother.

Ken Smith: "Which is correct, 'a hen is sitting,' or 'a hen is setting?'"

Loren Young: "I don't know, and I don't care. All I bother about is when she cackles—is she laying or is she lying?"

Don Funk: "Golf is pie for me."

Mr. Marks: "I know. You just took another slice."

One of the Princeton neighbors of Albert Einstein has an eight-year-old daughter who visited the famed scientist every afternoon. After many weeks of these daily visits, the girl's mother finally went to see Dr. Einstein and apologized to him for her daughter's constant interruptions.

"Oh, not at all," Einstein assured her. "I enjoy her visits and we get along well."

"But what can you and a little eight-year-old girl have in common?"

"A great deal," Einstein explained. "I love the jelly beans she brings me—and she loves the way I do her arithmetic lessons."

To find out a girl's faults, praise her to her girl friends.

Charlotte W.: "People are always laughing at me because I am fat."

Beverly C.: "They are just making jokes at your expense, eh?"

Instructor (to student sitting near another who has gone to sleep during a lecture): "Wake him up."

Student: "Wake him up yourself. You put him to sleep."

"You remind me of the ocean."

"Wild, restless, and romantic?"

"No, you just make me sick."

The bewildered guest was staring at Junior, who was driving several nails into an expensive table. He turned to his host: "It's none of my business," he said, "But don't you find it rather expensive to let your children play that way?"

"Not at all," the host beamed. "I get the nails wholesale."
